

REDUCE

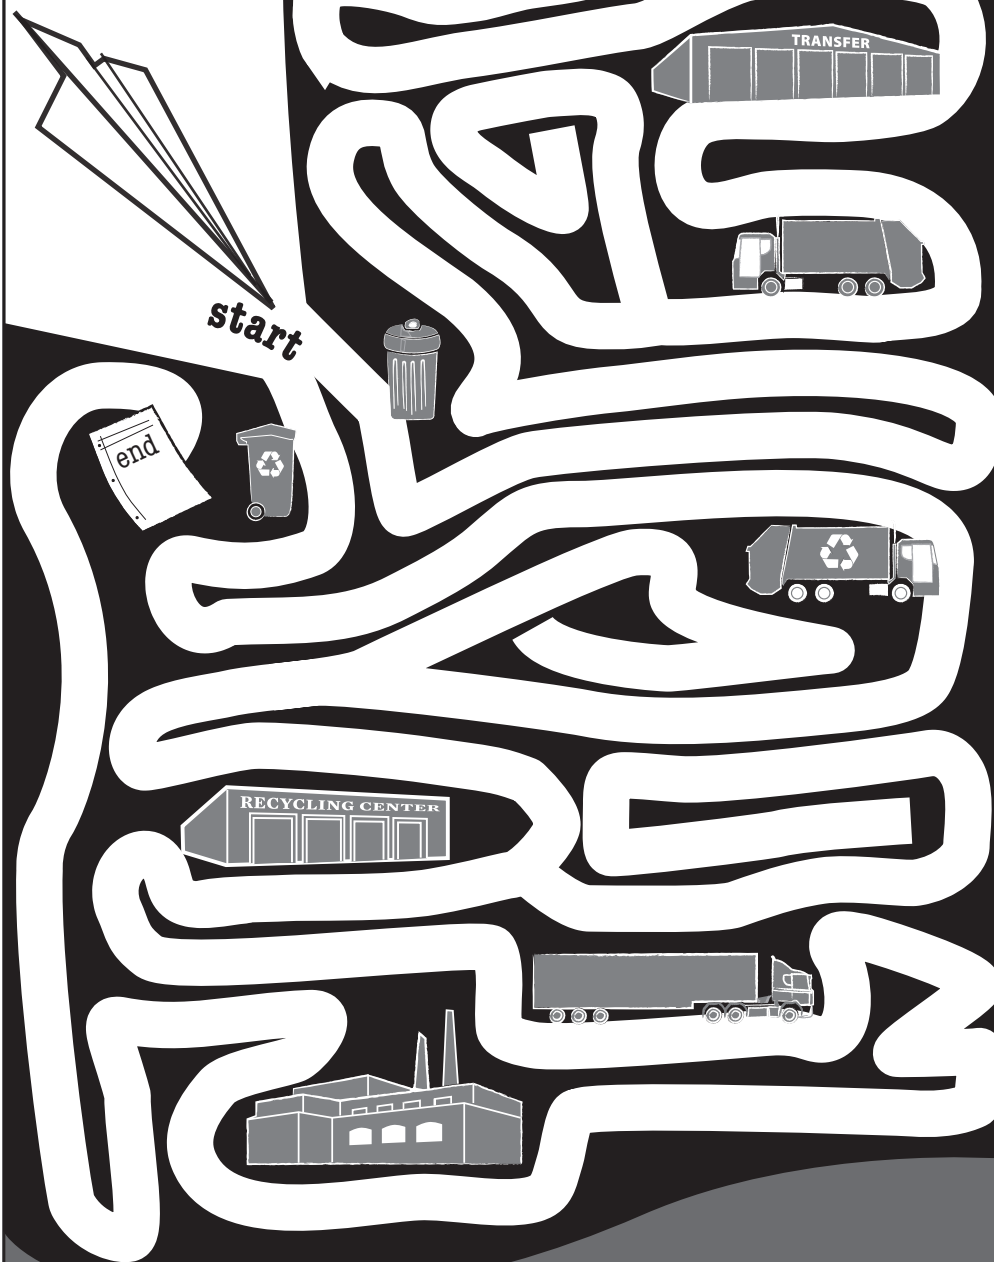

Draw a line from the throw-away item to something that can be used over and over again.

Reducing keeps items out of the landfill.

Which journey saves trees and other resources?

You make the difference!

Rethinking saves natural resources.

Printed on 100% post-consumer recycled paper

2013WM-4RColoring Book

FOUR R's

Activity & Coloring Pages

I WILL Rethink, Reduce, Reuse and Recycle!

THINK GREEN.®

© 2017 WM Intellectual Property Holdings, L.L.C.

REUSE & RECYCLE

Put yourself in the picture!

Find at least five items in this picture that can be reused.
Find five more that can be recycled.

Developed by Triangle Associates
for Waste Management

ANSWER KEY: Reusable items include cloth napkin, dish towel, lunch box, jar, thermos, travel cup, sponge and more...
Recyclable items include cardboard boxes, cans, jars, milk carton, newspaper, paper on fridge, soda can, plastic bottles, milk jug.

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

for Practicing the 4 Rs

Awarded to

My family will rethink, reduce, reuse and recycle as much as possible by

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

To learn more visit:

WM Recycling World

www.thinkgreen.com/recycle-world

www.wmnorthwest.com

www.epa.gov/recyclecity/